

The Christopher Ashley Team

“Each day brings new challenges and an opportunity to bring out the best in everyone,” says owner Chris Maddox, who, along with his team, travels to New York several times a year to train at the famed Bumble and Bumble University. During a two year apprenticeship to a renowned French hairdresser, Chris refined his eye on fashion like that of a tailor. “Each style must be altered to fit the unique characteristics of the individual,” he says. “Not too long, not too short and just the right color.”

Each member of the Christopher Ashley team recognizes that to truly exceed expectations they must be innovative and evolve themselves in their craft. The salon features an in-house training program, the Christopher Ashley Model Project (c.a.m.p.), which is offered at least once a month as a fun, energetic way for both the stylists and guests to try something new. “We are very passionate about our chosen profession,” Chris says. “We keep the focus where it should be - on you.”
